

MEN'S & WOMEN'S 3-POINT CONTEST
INFORMATION SHEET
Winter 2008

This information sheet is intended to provide basic information and rules for this activity. Please refer to the "Policies" link on the home page of the intramural web page for detailed information about policies and procedures of the Intramural Activities Program.

ENTRIES OPEN:

March 4-13 (Entries are limited and are on a first come, first served basis.)

DAY, TIME, AND LOCATION OF PLAY:

Both the men's and women's contests will be played on Saturday, March 15. The men will begin at 1:10 p.m. in 146 RB. The women will begin at 4:00 p.m. in 146 RB.

All participants need to sign up for a scheduled "shooting" time for Saturday, March 15. To sign up go to RB 145 before entries close on March 13. Shooting times will consist of twenty minute blocks in which the player will shoot and rebound. All participants should arrive 15 minutes prior to their scheduled "shooting" time in order to check-in and warm up.

TOURNAMENT INFORMATION:

Men's Tournament:

First Round: Each participant will get two chances to shoot at two different baskets. The two scores will be combined and anyone scoring a 24 or better will advance to the next round to begin at 3:20 p.m.

Final Rounds: In the final rounds there will only be one opportunity to shoot and the top scores will advance. The number of participants for the final rounds will be as follows: 16; 8; 4; 2; 1. The scores from the previous rounds will not carry over to the following rounds.

Women's Tournament:

First Round: Each participant will get two chances to shoot. The two scores will be combined and the top 4 scores will advance to the final round.

Final Rounds: In the final rounds there will only be one opportunity to shoot and the top scores will advance. The number of participants for the final rounds will be as follows: 4; 2; 1. The scores from the previous rounds will not carry over to the following rounds.

ELIGIBILITY:

Winter 2008 full-time students (12 credits), and faculty/staff are eligible. Part-time students, deferred students, non-students, and spouses of students must pay an intramural activity fee for each semester in which they participate. Non-students must be active members of a BYU ward and their membership records must reside in the BYU ward that they attend.

The intramural activity fee is paid at the HHP College Services Office in 112 Richards Building. The cost is $20.00 per semester during fall/winter and $10.00 for spring and summer terms. A BYU ID or BYU Net ID with valid picture ID is required at time of payment. This fee will enable a participant to compete in any intramural activity during the appropriate semester.

CHECK IN:

It is recommended that participants check-in with the activity supervisor at least ten minutes prior to shooting time. Forfeit time is shooting time. All participants will need to show a valid (government, school, or work issued) picture ID at check in. Part-time and non-students must also present their paid receipt for the intramural activity fee at their first match.

EQUIPMENT:

The basketballs will be provided by the Office of Intramural Activities.

UNIFORMS:

Any appropriate, modest athletic uniform is permissible. BYU issue is optional. Shirts and shoes must be worn. Sleeveless shirts are not allowed.

SPORTSMANSHIP:

Sportsmanship is everyone's responsibility. We hope that everyone will conduct himself in a mature and friendly manner. A yellow/red card system will be used to monitor unsportsmanlike behavior, rough play and improper conduct.

LIABILITY:

All participants play at their own risk and must acquire their own insurance.

RULES:

The contest consists of 5 stations of 4 basketballs each (20 total). The contestant will have 60 seconds. The first three balls of each station will count as 1 point. The last ball of each station counts as 2 points.

The participants will also be responsible for rebounding for three other shooters. These will be the same three shooters who rebound for the participant.
